Rules and conditions

The Principal is liable for all transactions performed on accounts that are covered by the power of attorney and for other instructions given to the Bank on the basis of the power of attorney, provided that these have been enacted by an authorised User of District. The Bank has the right to treat the User as an authorised person if the latter has gained access to District using his/her personal security code.

Fee account for subscription and transaction fees

The fee account is used for charging the subscription and transaction fees that arise from using District and the services provided via District. There are several ways of using the fee account/the account belonging to the Attorney or the Principal.

The power of attorney allows the Bank to charge subscription and transaction fees as follows:

- The Principal's subscription and transaction fees must be charged to the Attorney's fee account (central to the District agreement).
- The Principal's subscription and transaction costs must be charged to a fee account of the Principal, state account number.
- The Principal's transaction fees must be charged to the Principal's respective transaction account. This implies that transaction fees are charged to the account belonging to the Principal, which is used for the respective payment. A fee account of the Principal must be changed with the Principal's subscription fees, state account number.

The Principal hereby acknowledges that we accept and will observe all conditions, including module descriptions applying to all of the Attorney's establishment agreements for District. We also acknowledge that the conditions separately applying to the Guarantee and Trade Finance module, Swish Företag and One Trader are also binding for us if the Bank provides some of the products/services that are included in these modules at our expense.

The undersigned Principal acknowledges the above conditions of the power of attorney. The power of attorney may only be cancelled by means of written notice to the Bank or if the Bank receives from us a new power of attorney issued to replace a power of attorney issued earlier on behalf of the Attorney.

The Attorney is aware of the contents of the above power of attorney.
